©CMTB Animation/Queensgate Productions Ltd

Berk is back! And he is getting ready to make the fearsome, awesome, totally terrifying expedition down Through The Trap Door. If you have seen the creepy critters that live down there, you may well wonder why. But the truth is he has no choice. Boni has been captured and taken down into the gloomy depths, so Berk and little Drutt must go to the rescue, no matter what nasties they come up against. And what about all those potions lying about just waiting to be drunk. Could they be helpful, could they mean trouble, or could they even cause (gasp) constant pongeing! ! Speed, skill and daring will be necessary to get out alive!
